3. Matters arising None
4. Managers 2017-18 First team : Glyn Ford is willing to continue . He needs assistants and will appoint. Reserves : Dan Smith is willing to manage the reserves but will need help. AJW to confirm with probable managers. In order to help managers with the many jobs to be done on home match days, a whiteboard will be placed in the changing room for the managers' use. This will need to be purchased.	   AJW  AJW
5. Training Training will start on Tuesday 27 th June. Troon have asked for double header friendlies as in the past.	   JulW +AJW
6. Roseland Cup A meeting has been held. 7 potential teams, now 6 as Gerrans has withdrawn.
7. Pitch Renovations etc Re-seeding has been done. Several areas of the ground need work in tidying, strimming etc. Strimmer – difficult to start. Another would be helpful. Blue mower needs attention. Saturdays to be used by working parties.	     Cttee   TF Cttee
8. Any Other Business A much tighter system for money collection and recording is required. Kit – one set is coming from FACS and another is required. Minisoccer – recruiting for summer sessions needs to be done. JPW will lead the sessions but someone needs to support and do the FA Level 1 coaching course. 4-5 players needed to run the groups. JimW will do a bbq if required. Next season : all managers will need to take an interest in U15 team in order to support the players and make them feel part of the club. Jim Woodman asked about a spectator donation box at matches. He agreed to take a collection during home games. AJW happy to continue with managing veterans but someone will need to take over in the future. Jim Woodman to investigate costs of getting Sports Grit from Brooklands to Grampound.
9. Date of next meeting:- Tuesday 18th July 2017
