RUNNING A WEBSITE - DO'S AND DON'TS

Draft 1: November 2014

Summary of FA's Best Practice Guidance

This FA guidance is provided not as an obstacle but to support clubs to manage their safeguarding responsibilities effectively. It aims to ensure children, young people, coaches, referees and adults in a position of trust are not subjected to improper online behaviour or improper allegations.

Clubs should appoint appropriate adults to monitor the content of their websites. They should have an understanding of both the technology used and of safeguarding. This individual may be the Club Welfare Officer although this is not essential. However it would be expected that the named individual(s) will have attended The FAs Safeguarding Children Workshop. Clubs are advised to moderate your web pages on a daily basis where possible.

Clubs are responsible for ensuring all content hosted on their websites, social network areas and any associated message boards or blogs abide by the Rules and Regulations of The Football Association.

It is against FA rules to post comments that are or maybe conceived as

- Offensive
- Insulting
- Abusive
- Threatening
- Racist
- Discriminatory
- Any other reference that may cause offensive or harm to others

Any such comment made on club websites and/or social networking sites regarding officials may result in disciplinary action being taken in line with The FA's Disciplinary policies and procedures. Comments made on websites that are threatening abusive or racist could lead to legal action being taken against those responsible for posting or hosting them. Comments made may attract libel claims and legal action through the civil courts if they are untrue or defamatory.

Children and young people should be advised by their coaches, parents/carers and CWO to always tell an adult they trust about communications that make them feel uncomfortable or where they have been asked not to tell their parent/carer about the communication.

The club will

- appoint appropriate adult(s) to monitor the content of the website and social networking site(s)
- make sure everyone within your club knows who is responsible for monitoring the content of the club website and social networking areas and how to contact them
- apply the principles given within The FA's photography guidelines; Celebrating Football Thorough Photographs and Video
- place the CEOP, 'Report Abuse' app on your website and the link to the www.ThinkUKnow.co.uk internet safety site provided by CEOP which gives highly effective and age appropriate advice to children, young people, parents and carers
- provide links to www.TheFA.com 'Staying Safe Online' pages

If the club decides to use these methods of communication they are password protected and only those individuals known and granted access will be allowed to post comments
- those responsible for the sites will acknowledge responsibility on behalf of the club for all content contained within websites, forums blogs, tweets or social networking areas maintained by the club or team.
- regularly monitor the content of the above and use The FA's Respect Codes of Conduct as a guide to acceptable behaviours both on and off field including behaviour online.

The club will not

- host children's or young people's details where they can be seen or used by others to contact them. Any details hosted should only be done with written parental/carer consent.
